MOTION TO UNSEAL

Upon request of the United States, the indictment in this case was ordered sealed on September 12, 2014, until the defendants were in custody or had been released pending trial. To date, not all of the defendants have been arrested. Officers have made all reasonable efforts to locate and arrest the defendants who remain at large, and would now like to request the assistance of the public in locating them. Therefore, the United States respectfully requests that the indictment be unsealed at this time.
